QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING DN 7:13-14

Daniel had visions of Jesus (“Son of man”) receiving everlasting dominion, glory, and kingship from God (“the Ancient One”). Why do you think some people receive visions?

SECOND READING RV 1:5-8

Revelation teaches that Jesus loves us and has made us into a kingdom of priests for God. What do you think Jesus expects from us in return?

GOSPEL READING JN 18:33b-37

In his trial Jesus tells Pilate he was born to testify to the truth. Can you think of a time in your life when you had to tell a difficult truth to someone? ©LPI

GOSPEL MEDITATION

November 24, 2024

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

When I was a young boy in Burlington, Vermont, my dad had a good friend named Phil who owned a sporting goods store. I loved sports, so meandering the treasure-filled aisles was an unmitigated joy. One afternoon, we were shopping for a baseball glove. Dad said to me, “Hey Johnny, see that man who just walked into the store? That’s Phil.” I remember being fascinated and a little terrified. I recall thinking, “That man right there is in charge of everything in this store!” He reigned over every ball, sneaker, jersey, and sweatshirt. Phil became a family friend. And he was a good owner. The store flourished, and I found myself even more at peace every time I went there. I felt a new hope and even responsibility for the store to flourish.

To say that Christ is the King of the Universe means that Jesus has absolute authority over everything in it. It should fill us with awe and fascination. He is in charge. The world and everything in it are finally his. Knowing that he knows and loves us should make us also feel a deep peace at being a part of his universe. This leads us to want his kingdom to flourish, to play some responsible role in it.

We advance his kingdom by promoting the truth. “Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice,” Christ the King proclaims. In Phil’s store, it was about the truth of athletics. In our world, it’s all about the truth of all creation, especially the dignity of the human person, made by and for our loving God. Let’s rejoice that we know the true king and commit to the flourishing of his kingdom.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

ADVENT BOOKLETS FROM “THE WORD AMONG US” are available in the gathering space. The company has generously sent 40 issues to All Saints Parish, free of charge, to share with our parishioners for Advent which begins on December 1st.

“The magazine’s name, The Word Among Us, comes from the Prologue to the Gospel of John: ‘The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father’ (John 1:14). This passage reflects the vision and purpose of our publication: To be an instrument of the Spirit whose desire is to manifest Jesus’ presence in and to the children of God. In this way, we hope to contribute to the church’s ongoing mission of proclaiming the gospel to the world and growing ever more deeply in our love for the Lord.”

There are copies still available, so they are on a first come, first served basis. One copy per family, please.

There will be Mass on Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 28th at 8:00 AM.

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception occurs on Sunday, December 8th, 2024, which coincides with the Second Sunday of Advent. When a Solemnity is transferred to a Monday in Advent, Lent, or Easter the feast must be observed as a day of obligation on the day to which it is transferred. With this directive, Monday, December 9, 2024 will be celebrated as the Holy Day of Obligation for the Immaculate Conception. At All Saints Parish there will be only one Mass for the Holy Day - Monday, December 9th, at 8:00 AM.

The Waterford Food Pantry Giving Tree for children is now up in the church. This is the last week to take a name off the Giving Tree if there are tags left. Please return your purchases in gift bags by next weekend.
