QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING IS 5:1-7

The prophet Isaiah uses the metaphor of a vineyard to express God's anger with Israel. How do you communicate your displeasure with a loved one?

SECOND READING PHIL 4:6-9

Paul teaches the Philippians that prayer and a positive attitude is key to settling our anxious hearts and minds. What have you been anxious about this week that using Paul's advice could help?

GOSPEL READING MT 21:33-43

In the parable of the tenants, Jesus harshly criticizes the chief priests and elders of Jerusalem and traps them with their own judgment. How well do you accept legitimate criticism? ©LPi

REMEMBER ALL SAINTS PARISH IN YOUR WILL

Using this wording "I give and bequeath to All Saints Parish, 11264 Route 97 N, Waterford, PA 16441, the sum of _____ dollars, real estate and/or stock for the purpose of assisting All Saints Parish in furthering the work of the Church." Thank you for your consideration.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God's kingdom is open to anyone who will produce its fruit. He offers it to every single one of us.

We must be ready to bring forward the goodness of God into each and every day.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

Is the Eucharist a symbol?

The transformed bread and wine are truly the Body and Blood of Christ and are not merely symbols. When Christ said "This is my body" and "This is my blood," the bread and wine are transubstantiated. Though the bread and wine appear the same to our human faculties, they are actually the real body and blood of Jesus.

In the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the instrumentality of the priest. The whole Christ is truly present -- body, blood, soul, and divinity -- under the appearances of bread and wine, the glorified Christ who rose from the dead. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist.

FROM BISHOP PERSICO

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On October 22, World Mission Sunday is observed throughout the Church. World Mission Sunday reminds us each year to focus on the essential work of evangelization that is still ongoing throughout the world. Taking up this year's theme, "Hearts on fire, feet on the move" Pope Francis invites us to kindle the fire of Christ's love in our hearts and to actively share our faith. The World Mission Sunday collection assists the Holy Father to build up the Church in over 1,100 dioceses and territories that are too young and/or too poor to sustain themselves.

Offerings support the formation of seminarians and religious men and women, assist in the construction of schools and orphanages and enable missionaries to build churches in remote and resource-limited areas. For many years dioceses in the U.S. benefitted from this collection while we were still mission territory. In fact, the Diocese of Fairbanks, Alaska, received its final support as a mission diocese just last year. The annual Mission collection helps missionary dioceses until they can stand on their own feet and become independent. As our nation has benefitted from this support in the past, may we now support those areas of the world where the Catholic faith is blossoming.

I invite you to please pray for the work of the missions, and support this work as generously as you can.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
The Most Reverend Lawrence T. Persico, JCL
Bishop of Erie

GET TO KNOW OUR “PARTNERS”

Learn more about St. Boniface Parish by visiting their website <https://stbonifaceparisherie.org> and by reading their bulletins. A brief introduction to St. Boniface is also available in the gathering space. They will also share our information with their parishioners. Please continue to pray for Bishop Persico and all parishes as this restructuring moves forward.

The deadline to respond to the preliminary pastoral plan for parishes in Erie County has been extended until Oct. 9. Significant, thoughtful and helpful feedback has been received from across Erie County, but the extension is being offered at the request of parishes and parishioners, some of whom are still holding town meetings and other gatherings.

The All Saints Safety Council is looking for additional members. The Safety Council's mission is to keep the All Saints community safe in the event of an emergency situation. The Safety Council formulates response procedures that address various emergency situations. The next meeting will take place on Thursday, October 19th at 7:00 PM.
