ALL YOU HOLY MEN AND WOMEN, PRAY FOR US

ALL SAINTS DAY, NOVEMBER 1st Happy Parish Feast Day!

I heard a story the other day of a very holy man. The commentator said, "We shouldn't call him a saint. If we sanctify him, we don't have to imitate him." This is precisely the opposite of the meaning of saints! Throughout the Church's history, we have honored saints, but not to set them apart. We honor saints to remind us what is possible for a person who loves God. The saints have stories as varied as our own. We have bishops, martyrs, teachers, doctors, former thieves and prostitutes, politicians and kings, soldiers and pacifists, single mothers, desert hermits, the list goes on! On the Solemnity of All Saints, we remember this garden of holiness, rich with diverse flowerings of a holy life. When you look at the life of your favorite saint, ask yourself, "How can I imitate this person? What is possible for me when I love God?" ©LPI

(All Saints Day is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year because it falls on a Saturday. The Mass for Saturday evening is for the anticipation of Sunday, which is All Souls' Day)

After Mass next Sunday, All Souls' Day, there will be a special service for the families of those from the parish who have died since last All Souls' Day. You are invited to stay for this service and remember these souls from our parish and to support their families. Thank you.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

Sirach teaches us that God cares deeply about our desire for justice. Can you think of a time when you fought against an unjust situation?

SECOND READING 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

As Paul nears the end of his life, he shares with Timothy how he fought hard for the faith, ever grateful for the Lord's support. As you look back on your life, can you see where God has been present?

GOSPEL READING Luke 18:9-14

Jesus teaches the crowds about the importance of humility. Does humility come to you naturally or do you have to work at it? ©LPI

A Family Perspective
