Inspiration of the Week

“Who do you say that I am?”

Jesus asks his apostles. Peter is the first to answer. He knows who Jesus is. Do we? In everything we do and everything we are, let us say together with Peter: “You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God.”

St. Monica

A MOTHER OF FAITH. A SAINT OF PATIENCE.

This week we celebrate two saints, a mother and son: St. Monica and St. Augustine.

As a young Christian woman, St. Monica was married to a pagan. Early in their marriage, he was bitter and critical. After nearly 20 years, Monica's holy example led to his conversion to Christianity.

In the meantime, Augustine was a teenager beginning to live a wild life of self-indulgent excess. This lifestyle would continue into his adulthood.

Like with her husband, Monica prayed and fasted for the conversion of her son.

Augustine met another future saint, the bishop Ambrose of Milan, who greatly influenced his perspective on life. Augustine was baptized a Christian!

Augustine later became a bishop and one of the most influential thinkers in Christian history.

"Late have I loved You,
O Beauty ever ancient,
ever new."
— St. Augustine

How's that for the power of patience and intercessory prayer?

Faith Formation isn't just for the kids!

We would like to offer adult groups and are gathering ideas. Do you want to talk about a certain book of the bible? Or about Magnifica Humanitas (Magnificent Humanity), which is Pope Leo's first encyclical, addressing human dignity and the ethical challenges posed by artificial intelligence? Or do you want to form a coffee club to gather after mass and talk about the Gospel and the week ahead? Please reach out and share your ideas. We want to hear from you!

BLESSING

Dear God,

We ask that You bless the students in our congregation, giving them inspirational teachers, studious habits, solid friendships, and Your grace in every moment
of this school year.

Bless the teachers and school staff
in our congregation, too.

Fill them with Your love and care so that,
as they teach and minister to our young people,
Your wisdom and light may be known,
