QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING Amos 6:1a, 4-7

The prophet Amos is critical of the Israelites living in luxury while ignoring the social decay surrounding them. How can we avoid such insensitivity to the pain and suffering of others?

SECOND READING 1 Timothy 6:11-16

Paul encourages Timothy to be a strong and faithful leader, focusing on the return of Jesus and the goal of eternal life. Who encourages you in your faith life?

GOSPEL READING Luke 16:19-31

Jesus forewarns the Pharisees about the great reversal in the afterlife awaiting the self-centered rich and the desperately poor. With whom could you be generous this week? ©LPi

"...IN THIS WORLD I CANNOT SEE
THE MOST HIGH SON OF GOD WITH MY OWN EYES, EXCEPT FOR HIS MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD."
ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The rich man had a chance, every day of his life,
to choose righteousness.

But righteousness wasn't convenient for him.

He discovered too late that the only time

we have to follow God is now.

Here. This moment.

Will we take our chance? ©LPi

The Novena for Mental Health is an opportunity for all the People of God to join together in prayer for women and men experiencing or impacted by mental health issues and for all those who accompany them. The entire church in the United States is especially encouraged to pray this Nationwide Novena in solidarity with Catholics across the country from October 10 to October 18, beginning on World Mental Health Day (Oct 10), including Mental Health Sunday and concluding on the feast of Saint Luke the Physician (Oct 18), the patron of health care.

This nine-day prayer experience was developed in collaboration with the National Catholic Mental Health Coalition, a network of leaders representing organizations advising the USCCB and engaging in active work around mental health in Catholic communities nationwide. The children and youth in our Faith Formation program will be walking around the parish plant to stand in solidarity with those who have food insufficiencies in our community and our world as part of the 2025 CROP Hunger Walk. Join us after Mass on Sunday or join the actual CROP Walk at Beach 1 of Presque Isle State Park. Registration is at 1:00 PM; the walk starts at 2:00. Thank you for your generosity.

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel, the rich man died and was condemned to "a place of torment" because he ignored the poor. He asked Lazarus to go and warn his five brothers to change their ways, revealing ignoring the poor was a family pattern. What is your family's attitude toward those who are poor?

The 2025 Catholic Education Collection

There is still time to give to the Catholic Education Collection. Know that half of what you give will remain at our parish to support our catechists who volunteer for our faith formation programs! You can make a gift by using the envelope provided in your offertory packet, online by using our WeShare giving on our website, or online at <https://www.eriercd.org/cec.html>. Thank you!

From our Pastor...

Your response to my announcement of retirement was one of understanding, support and a touch of sadness. I want to thank you for your genuine expression of thoughts and feelings. They carry great meaning for me. I'm still with you until October 15th. The days ahead I believe will be good and one of sharing. I must say I enjoyed the many hugs. ~ Fr. Greg

SAVE THE DATE! October 11 & 12!

October is Clergy Appreciation Month, a time for us to honor and thank the priests and deacons who walk with us in faith. Clergy Appreciation Day, observed on Oct. 12, is a special moment for our parishes and schools to come together in thanksgiving for their service.

Here at All Saints we will have a special event after each Mass that weekend, not only to honor and thank Fr. Greg and Deacon Tom, but also to wish Fr. Greg well in his retirement as this will be his last official weekend with us as our pastor.

Details about these events will be shared with you soon. Please plan to stay after Mass to celebrate on Oct. 11 & 12!

The Blessing of the Pets

Next Sunday, October 5th, Father Greg will offer a pet blessing at 11:30 AM (at the end of Faith Formation classes). Please plan to bring your pet(s) to the parking lot at church for this special blessing!
