QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING EZ 34:11-12, 15-17

Ezekiel offers a beautiful vision to the Israelites held captive in Babylon of God as a shepherd tending carefully to the sheep in his flock who are lost, injured, or sick. Who do you know needs to hear this message of hope?

SECOND READING 1 COR 15:20-26, 28

Paul teaches the Corinthians how believers are destined to share in resurrected life with our Lord Jesus Christ. What do you imagine resurrected life with Christ will look like?

GOSPEL READING MT 25:31-46

The final Gospel reading of the Liturgical Year focuses on Judgement Day. All will be measured by how we treated those on the margins of society. What could you do this week to help the poor or the stranger or those in prison?

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, “What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?”

I’m a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king’s most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, “this is our king” is to say, “we exist as a community, and we have a future.” Kingship isn’t primarily about the power of one person or family. It’s about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people.

We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It’s not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let’s be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

The youth of the parish will be ministering for the 9:00 Mass. This includes music ministry, lectors, altar servers, etc. All of our preschool through 9th grade students will be part of the Mass. We will have our sing-along at the conclusion of Mass. There are 4 or 5 songs that will be sung so please try to stay if you can. A social is also in the planning stages for all parishioners.

Our small group (you know who you are -- 9th graders) will be meeting on Sunday, November 26h from 11-2 in the Social Hall. We will make some lunch together (potluck) and watch the movie "The Shack" together. Please pray for us as we begin a new journey together!

A Family Perspective

Our actions as parents in feeding the hungry, welcoming strangers or estranged relatives into our homes teach our children moral lessons of life. We clothe our sick or imprisoned neighbors by caring for them and visiting them. The beatitudes are the perfect playbook for Jesus' expectations of families. Our routine actions make Christ present in all we do.

Giving Tree Donations

Thank you to all who purchased items for the Waterford Food Pantry Giving Tree. Your donations will help to make Christmas brighter for a local needy family. All items are due back to the church this weekend.
