THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

THE HOLY GHOST
DESCENDED LIKE A DOVE.

— LUKE 3:21 —

GLPI

11264 Route 97 N, Waterford, PA 16441

January 12, 2025 The Baptism of the Lord Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

In my second year of theology studies, I went to confession to a priest visiting the seminary for a three-day retreat. My heart wasn't in it. I was going through the motions. I confessed my sins and waited for his response. The priest said, "For your penance, I'd like you to go into the chapel and repeat the words 'You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased' (Luke 3:22) until they mean something to you." Easy penance, I thought.

But to my surprise, I struggled to say those words. I sensed a strong interior resistance blocking them. How could God be well-pleased with me? He couldn't be, I thought. A battle within me ensued. Two hours later, the resistance vanished, and I found myself able to speak, and claim as my own, those marvelous words. I emerged from the chapel with a new, deep, peaceful conviction that I was indeed God's beloved son.

Those words are a precious gift from heaven to all of us. Jesus' baptism, which we celebrate this week, offers them to us. Are we willing to receive these words anew? Many things can block this deepening of our baptismal identity: failings, sins, disappointments, traumas, problems, and so on. Yet God's love is always greater.

This week I challenge you to prayerfully repeat these words over yourself — or perhaps over someone you're struggling to love — until those words find a home in your heart. — Father John Muir ©LPI

We choose a patron saint for ourselves in the Sacrament of Confirmation because the saints are our heroes. They accepted God's tremendous love with great receptivity. They cooperated with God's grace and helped bring the world more in line with Christ and the Gospel.

As our Confirmation Candidates prepare to celebrate the sacrament on March 13th, please keep them in your prayers.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments – 3 Ways for Teens to Reboot

Sending and receiving messages late at night can make it hard to fall asleep or interrupt sleep. Teens want to stay connected to friends, but the lack of sleep or interrupted sleep can affect everything from their mood to their sports performance. Here are 5 tips to follow at night that will help boost energy and focus in the morning. 1.) Log off your messaging apps, social media and email at bedtime. 2.) Turn off your phone when it's time for bed don't just set it to vibrate. 3.) Get in the habit of powering off your devices – especially if they are in your room. Turn off all electronics, like laptops, tablets, TVs, and video game consoles. Blinking lights and glowing screens can make it harder to fall and stay asleep. Sticking to a cut-off curfew each night for your devices will give your brain some much needed tech-free downtime. For additional resources visit www.eriecd.org/childprotection/

The All Saints Ladies Society has sponsored a Ministry Fair the second weekend in January for the last two years.

We are not having an "in person" fair this year. But we would like to remind everyone that there are many ministries and organizations that could use your support such as altar servers, lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, choir members, catechists for Faith Formation, selling SCRIP gift cards, and helping with safety before, during, and after Mass.

You may also consider joining a parish organization such as the Ladies Society, the Knights of Columbus, Companions on the Journey, Parish Council, Safety Council, Lenten Fish Dinners or the Bingo committee.

There are booklets with information on our Ministries and Organizations available in the gathering space and in the church office. Please contact the church office or myself if interested in becoming more involved. Thank you for your support.
