QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING EX 20:1-17

The “10 Commandments” given to Moses at Mount Sinai reveal God’s moral and ethical expectations for Israel. Which of these Commandments do you personally find most challenging to follow?

SECOND READING 1 COR 1:22-25

Early in his letter to the Corinthians, Paul speaks of his firm conviction in the power and wisdom of his proclamation, “Christ crucified.” What are you confident about in your faith life?

GOSPEL READING JN 2:13-25

Jesus’ deep passion (“zeal”) for the Jerusalem Temple led to his strong (and violent) reaction to what he witnessed in the Temple. What is something you feel passionate about as it relates to your faith? ©LPI

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

During Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to “have no other gods besides me.” This is our “grip.” Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say “yes” to this fundamental question of our spiritual “grip,” then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don’t rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshiping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love. Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you’re not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this “idol” to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics. — Father John Muir ©LPI
