We hear how Solomon prayed for and received the virtues of prudence and wisdom. What are you praying to the Lord for these days?

SECOND READING HEB 4:12-13

Hebrews teaches us that “the word of God” knows and understands what is in our hearts and minds. Do you find this comforting or unsettling?

GOSPEL READING MK 10:17-30

Jesus taught his followers that excessive wealth and possessions can impact one’s priorities in life. What are some practical ways to keep Jesus as a top priority in your life? ©LPI

Low Gluten hosts are available. If you or someone in your family is sensitive to gluten, please talk to Fr. Greg for details about receiving a low gluten host during Mass.

LIVE THE LITURGY

“Who can be saved?” the apostles wonder. Who can be good enough? Smart enough? Holy enough? Jesus reminds them that no one can be - not without asking for help. We all need help to be holy. Never tire of asking for the help you need. ©LPI

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In 2024, World Mission Sunday will be celebrated on the weekend of October 19-20. Donations collected at these worldwide Masses go entirely to support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is new, young or poor.

World Mission Sunday supports over 1,150 mission territories specifically in Asia, Africa, Latin America, the Pacific Islands, and the Middle East. In the 1800’s, it was the Catholic Church in the United States that benefitted from this collection. Now is our chance to give back. This year’s theme is: “Go and invite everyone to the banquet.” (cf. Mt 22:9). This message, rooted in the parable of the wedding banquet, calls us to a renewed sense of our missionary responsibility. Pope Francis emphasizes the call to every Christian to bear witness to Christ, to participate in a mission of universal evangelization, and to seek strength and guidance from the Holy Spirit.

As we prepare for World Mission Sunday, may we be inspired by the words of Pope Francis. Let us pray that the Lord may help us to be a more missionary Church, reaching out to every corner of the earth with His message of love and salvation. With gratitude for your generosity, and with prayers for a fruitful celebration of World Mission Sunday,

I remain sincerely yours in Christ,
The Most Reverend Lawrence T. Persico, JCL
Bishop of Erie

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments – Is Your Child Street Smart?

Being street smart means knowing how to keep yourself safe from strangers when you're alone or with other kids. When you are street smart you know your way around, you know how to handle yourself in tough situations and you can "read" people. Teach your child who strangers are - (anyone they do not know or kind of know) and to never approach a stranger's vehicle. Teach your child to always tell you where they are. Teach your child to always go with a friend or two whether walking to school, bike riding or going to the store. Pick out safe spots where your child can go and get help. Places like police stations, stores, restaurants. Teach them how to spot safe places on their route and to avoid places that aren't safe. Finally, teach your child to trust their instincts and to make a lot of noise if they are scared.

For more information visit www.kidshealth.org. For additional resources visit www.eriecrd.org/childprotection.

A Family Perspective

Having possessions is an illusion. In today's gospel Jesus told the young man to give up his need to control and put his trust in God. He couldn't let go! In families our need to control destroys relationships. We can lead, teach and encourage, but we can't control anyone but ourselves.
