QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING Genesis 14:18-20

In his miraculous escape from prison, Peter was convinced of God's saving work in his life. Where do you see God at work in your life?

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

As Paul was nearing the end of his life, he realized that God had rescued him from many dangers and threats. As you reflect on your life, can you see times when God's saving hand was present for you?

GOSPEL READING Luke 9:11b-17

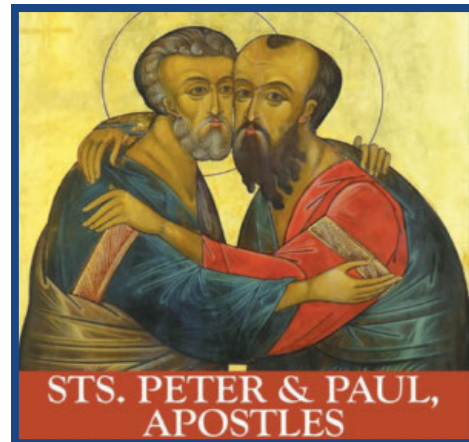

Jesus commissioned Peter to be the foundation ("rock") of his Church. Are there any roles or responsibilities you feel called to do in your parish? ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

June 29, 2025—Sts. Peter And Paul, Apostles Matthew 16:13-19

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival?

Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

CATHOLIC COUNCIL FOR EXCEPTIONAL FAMILIES WILL IMPLEMENT NEW PROGRAM

The Catholic Council for Exceptional Families is creating a sensory-friendly program for special needs youth and families to do hands on and sensory friendly catechesis. If your family, or a family you know, has Youth ages 6-18 with special needs, they are encouraged to learn more by calling Dr. Aaron Kerr at the Diocese of Erie Faith Formation office, 814-824-1222 or email akerr@eriercd.org.

Look for pictures from the youth lock-in that took place at All Saints on June 20th in next week's bulletin!

Staying Safe Online

With more people trying to access our phones without permission, it's important to keep them secure, especially since we rely on them to stay connected with our church and loved ones. To protect your phone, use a strong password or fingerprint lock, download apps only from trusted sources like the official app store, and regularly update your phone and apps. Be cautious when using public Wi-Fi, as it can expose your private information. You might also consider installing a trusted security app for extra protection. These simple steps can help keep your phone safe and ensure you stay connected with your community. Find out more here: <https://www.wizer-training.com/blog/how-to-keep-your-mobile-phone-more-secure>.

The Waterford Food Pantry is still in need of a few people to volunteer once a month to carry boxes of food to client's cars. Those interested need to be able to carry at least 35 pounds. There is one evening and 3 morning slots available. Please call Val Rose if interested at 814-602-9175.

The Waterford Food Pantry could use donations of crackers this month. Any brand is fine.

The Summit Food Pantry could use paper towels. These and any donations can go in the blue barrels near the church entrance. Thank you for your help!

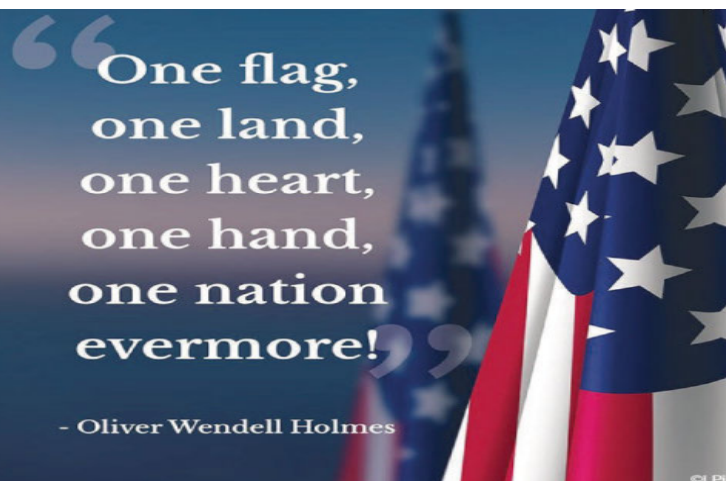

THIS WEEK IN OUR PARISH:

The Parish Office will be OPEN Monday through Wednesday this week and closed July 3 & 4. You may leave messages on the parish answering machine when the office is closed and someone will return your call as soon as possible.

TODAY, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, the two Apostles who shed their blood for Christ in Rome. The Peter's Pence Collection is taken up every year throughout the Church on or near that Solemnity. This collection will be taken up this weekend, June 28 and 29.

The Peter's Pence Collection supports the charitable works of our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, the successor of St. Peter, as he responds to some of the most urgent needs of people throughout the world, including relief to victims of natural disasters such as earthquakes and floods. Peter's Pence also helps our Holy Father support seminaries and religious houses, orphanages, AIDS treatment centers, and other medical facilities in developing nations, as well as many other charitable works. From the beginning the Church has made it a priority to help the most in need among our brothers and sisters in the human family. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
