LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our culture seems more polarized and divided than ever. Into this wounded situation, our Catholic faith has a healing remedy to offer: the gift of wisdom. When the Lord offers to give King Solomon anything the monarch desires, he requests "an understanding heart" (1 Kings 3:9). In his polarized situation, the King doesn't ask for power to defeat his enemies. He asks for a wise and understanding heart to judge right from wrong. This wisdom is elevated and fulfilled in Jesus who teaches us to bring forth "both the new and the old" (Matthew 13:52).

In our fractured society, we Christians should stop pining for political power to crush our perceived enemies. That often just makes things worse. Rather, it's much more useful to beg for the grace of true wisdom which transcends both sides of the aisle. This places us in a fresh position from which we can help our culture see what is true and good all across the ideological spectrum. Sometimes we'll look like liberals (e.g., in our love for the poor and marginalized) and other times like conservatives (e.g., in our sexual ethics and views on religious freedom). Because this wisdom is free from ideological narrowness, it will help to heal these painful fractures.

Lord Jesus, this week, pour into us your healing wisdom.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING 1 KGS 3:5, 7-12

The young King Solomon asked the Lord in prayer for a wise and discerning heart, and it was granted to him. What gift would you ask from the Lord?

SECOND READING ROM 8:28-30

Paul teaches the believers in Rome that God calls us "according to his purpose." Do you have a sense of your purpose in life? If so, what is it?

GOSPEL READING MT 13:44-52

Jesus offers several kingdom of heaven parables to the disciples: buried treasure and fine pearls (a priceless discovery) and the large catch of fish (an invitation to all). With these parables, what do you think Jesus is teaching us about the kingdom of heaven? ©LPi

Did you know that modern methods of Natural Family Planning (NFP) can be used to reliably space children, help infertile couples achieve pregnancy, increase body literacy, and help diagnose and wholistically treat women's health issues? A Family Perspective

The man in today's gospel "sold all he had" for the treasure he found. Family relationships are "treasures" and demand our total personal investment. Invest yourself in the "treasure" of your family. My God, give your servant an understanding heart..." (1 Kings 3:9) Kids make mistakes. Sometimes they are just selfish. You may not be Solomon but seek God's wisdom in disciplining your children and teaching them right from wrong.

FUN FOR KIDS!
