QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING Acts 2:1-11

The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and able to speak in multiple tongues so that all the people could understand them. When do you feel the Holy Spirit present in your life?

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Paul assures us that as believers, the Spirit of God dwells in us. How ought the indwelling of the Spirit positively impact our day-to-day living?

GOSPEL READING John 20:19-23

The resurrected Jesus sent out the disciples to forgive (or retain) sins. What has been your experience of the sacrament of Reconciliation? ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

June 8, 2025 Pentecost Sunday John 20:19-23

When I was a seminarian almost 20 years ago, a bank vice president taught us etiquette classes. She said, "Gentlemen, please make sure your breath isn't bad. Take some breath mints before you hear confessions, okay?" We nervously laughed because the proximity that makes breath noticeable (whether pleasant or not) can be a bit awkward.

When Jesus breathes on his Apostles (John 20:22), he must have been within inches of at least some of them. This closeness of his breath has a purpose: the purpose of forgiveness of sins. "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them" (John 20:23). Why in the world would the almost uncomfortable closeness of his breath forgive sins?

In the Bible, breath is spirit or wind. It comes from above and makes that which is below to have identity. To not have a single identity is to be multiple, divided. The word "sin" comes from an ancient word that means "to split" or "render asunder." Sin divides us sinners and the world around us; our spiritual "breath" leaves us and our identity splinters. Only breath from above restores. For example, a shattered vase is rendered whole because the craftsman breathes the spirit of the vase back into it when he repairs it. A human being shattered by sin is made whole by the breath of God, breathed by Jesus through his priests. His breath alone forgives sins. It's always done with his gentle, loving closeness.

It is time to begin planning the annual Parish Picnic to be held on August 10th. Those wishing to be on the committee, please sign up in the gathering space. Input from our youth and young adults, as well as from any other parishioners, would be welcome. Those signing up will be called about a meeting time."

Fr. Greg continues his recovery and sends his regards to his parish family. Cards & well-wishes can be sent to the parish or dropped off on the weekends and we will get them to him.
