Also, Pam McArAw is collecting names of service men and women of the parish or their relatives as we will keep them in our prayers.

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The best way to understand the Eucharist is to recall God’s long, careful teaching process beginning in the Old Testament. This week in Exodus 24, we learn the basic pattern. Moses reads the dictates of God’s law to the people, who profess their allegiance to it. Then Moses takes representatives of Israel’s twelve tribes and splashes the sacrificed blood of animals in two directions: on the altar and on the people. It’s clear and serious business: clear, because the participants are entering a blood-bond with God Himself; serious, because the dead animals symbolize the life-and-death stakes at play.

Many centuries later, God uses the experience at Sinai to teach us something new. At the Last Supper, like a new Moses, Jesus proposes to “pour out” blood as a new covenant. It will land on the altar of the cross and the lips of his disciples. They have promised to be obedient to him who is God’s law in flesh. This renews and elevates the breath-taking romance God wants with His people, unfolding from Sinai to this Supper. The Body and Blood of Christ is the sacrificial action whereby this covenant is strengthened.

How hopeful that, like us, the Israelites and the apostles repeatedly fail to live up to their promises and discover that the blood of the covenant continually renews and refreshes them. Today the blood of Christ faithfully flows, to unite and renew, moving us forward toward where our great teacher is taking us. This week, we should say a renewed “amen” to God who so carefully teaches us how to be one with Him in this new covenant.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING EX 24:3-8

We hear the Israelites’ enthusiastic commitment to the covenant at Mount Sinai with their words: “We will do everything that the Lord has told us.” What are you passionately committed to in your life?

SECOND READING HEB 9:11-15

Hebrews teaches us that through his death (Jesus’s blood), believers receive the promised eternal inheritance. How often do you think about “eternity?”

GOSPEL READING MK 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus taught his disciples that through his death, his body and blood would be shed for many. How should we show gratitude for such a sacrifice? ©LPI

The MINISTRY SCHEDULE to sign up for lectors, altar servers, and Eucharistic ministers for June and July can be found on the table in the gathering space. Please take a moment to look at the schedule and fill in a spot where you are available.

A Family Perspective

One gets the impression there was always a lot of sharing, discussion and learning during the many meals Jesus and the disciples ate together. How does this compare to the meals in your home? Today’s gospel challenges us to make our meals more than physical functions and more a time for sharing.

As summer vacation time comes, outdoor activities usually increase – but there are also rainy days. Be prepared with quiet reading areas and interesting child friendly books, art & craft possibilities so they don’t just revert to the TV or their electronic device.

ALL SAINTS LADIES SOCIETY “SPRING IN THE COUNTRY” LUNCHEON WAS A HUGE SUCCESS! The profit from this event was $8,835.52! This parish organization will continue to support bereavement ministry and community and parish needs among many other things. The insert in today’s bulletin is a thank-you to the many local businesses who donated to our gift auction. Help us thank them by supporting their business.

Look for Father’s Day outreach to all men of the parish on June 15 & 16!

Companions on the Journey

offers an opportunity for women to enhance their life and well-being through education, empowerment and encouragement. Meeting topics vary to support the interest of the group and also include social and outreach options. Please join us in the Parish Social Hall on the first and third Thursday of the month at 1:00 p.m. The next meeting is June 6. All are welcome. For more information, please contact Jennifer (864-4303) or Sandra (864-6850).

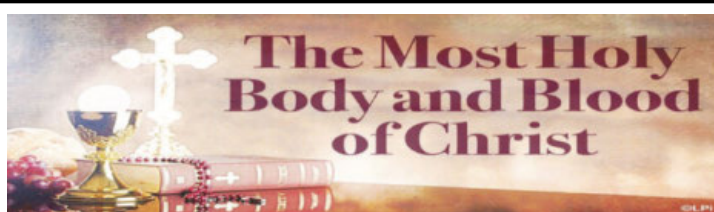

Prayer Shawl Ministry: Prayer shawls are a beautiful way to support someone who is sick, grieving or struggling in any way. Companions on the Journey has handmade shawls which were prayed over by our group and blessed by Father Greg. We have them for men as well as women. You can call Jennifer 814-864-4303 or Sandra 814-864-6850 or see us at Mass.

THIS WEEK IN OUR PARISH:

 NO WEEKDAY MASSES
 Thursday, 6/06 1:00 PM Companions on the Journey
 Thursday, 6/06 7:00 PM Parish Council Meeting
 Saturday 6/08 4:30 PM Mass

WELCOME FR. DAVID RENNE AS OUR PASTORAL ADMINISTRATOR AND WEEKEND MASS CELEBRANT!

Fr. David will be taking care of All Saints Parish while Fr. Greg is on medical leave. We are blessed! While there are no weekday Masses, Fr. Renne will be celebrating the regular weekend Masses and he will be available for confessions on Saturdays from 3:30 to 4:00 PM. Thank you Fr. David!

Schedule of Regional Eucharistic Processions on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) June 2, 2024

The procession on Corpus Christi is an act of thanksgiving. It is an expression of our faith in Christ’s presence in the Eucharist, that he dwells with us and that he leads us. The presence of our parishes and organizations demonstrates that, as St. Augustine said, we become what we receive. The local processions will take place according to the following schedules:

- St. Peter Cathedral, Erie: The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed at the end of the 11:00 am Mass. The procession with the Blessed Sacrament will begin at 2:00 pm.
- The Epiphany of the Lord, Meadville: The procession will start at St. Mary Church at 12:45 pm with adoration. It will proceed to St. Brigid Church for another prayer interlude, then continue to St. Agatha Church for reposition and a social afterward.

PARISH PICNIC PLANNING

The Ladies Society has graciously offered to oversee the parish picnic planning. Many hands are needed for this parish event. Please sign the paper in the gathering space if you would be willing to help plan the parish picnic scheduled for Sunday, August 25th. A meeting will be scheduled soon for all volunteers. Thank you.
