LIVE THE LITURGY

The apostles argue, each one claiming to be the greatest of Christ's followers. But Christ shows them who is truly the greatest — a child, one who has no thought of his own importance, one who has no ambition. Let's seek to be like that child. ©LPI

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING WIS 2:12, 17-20

The Jewish wisdom writer teaches us that wicked people revile and test those who are just and upright. What might be an effective way to win over a wicked person?

SECOND READING JAS 3:16—4:3

James encourages us to be sincere and consistent in cultivating peace. Can you think of a situation this week at home or at work where you could seek peace?

GOSPEL READING MK 9:30-37

We hear today that the disciples did not always understand Jesus and were afraid sometimes to ask him questions. How would you suggest dealing with tensions that arise in close relationships? ©LPI

Children's Liturgy of the Word.
 At the 9:00 AM Sunday Mass, Fr. Greg will dismiss children ages 4 to 10 to go to the social hall with the adult leaders. There they will hear the Word of God in language they can understand and then discuss what they heard God saying to them! Interested in helping with this ministry? Talk to Carol Onuffer after Mass.

Father Greg will offer a Blessing of the Pets in the church parking lot Friday, October 4th (The Feast of St. Francis of Assisi) starting at 6:00 PM. ALL PETS and their humans ARE WELCOME!!

There is still time to donate to the Catholic Education Collection for the Diocese of Erie. 50% of what is collected at All Saints Parish stays right here to help fund our Faith Formation efforts. Thank you!

A Family Perspective

Disagreements are common in families. But what would you say if Jesus posed the same question "What are you arguing about?" Is it silly and petty? Is it an attempt to impose your will and control on another, or to really solve a problem? Today Jesus tells us and his disciples to give it up. We are meant to serve each other, not control.
