LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What is Christianity finally about? These days if you ask almost anyone who doesn't know the Bible you'll probably hear an answer like this: "Being a good person" or "following the golden rule." No offense to the golden rule, but our faith is simply much stranger than that. This week's feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is a luminous example of this. Jesus becomes radiantly and overwhelmingly beautiful. The glory of God literally shines forth from his body and even his clothes. Here we see that Christianity is not mainly a moral system, but a relationship with God in Christ, one that finally makes human beings gloriously beautiful.

Now we can see our good and bad deeds in a new and de-centered way. Our morality isn't about a heaven or hell scorecard. It's about lives open (or closed) to transfiguration, lives capable of revealing the glory of God in Christ to the world. Spouses, children, friends, co-workers, priests, consecrated women and men, and so on — we are all called to let the beauty of Jesus make our lives beautiful, little by little. His beauty in us is the center of our faith. — Father John Muir ©LPi

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING DN 7:9-10, 13-14

In a vision, the prophet Daniel sees the heavenly throne of God and the coming kingdom of God represented by a human figure, a "son of man." The vision speaks to God's everlasting love and ultimate control of the world. Why do you think God reveals Himself in visions?

SECOND READING 2 PT 1:16-19

Peter speaks of his eyewitness to the majesty of Jesus Christ. How might you witness to family or friends this week your beliefs about Jesus?

GOSPEL READING MT 17:1-9

The transfiguration reveals Jesus's divinity to Peter, James, and John, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." What would you say is the most important lesson from Jesus that we should listen to? ©LPi

Ministry Schedule for August, September, October

The schedule for Lectors, Altar Servers, and Eucharist Ministers for the next few months is available in the gathering space. Please check your calendars and take a moment to sign up. Interested in one of these ministries? Speak to Fr. Greg or Deacon Tom.

Low Gluten hosts are available. If you or someone in your family is sensitive to gluten, please talk to Fr. Greg for details about receiving a low gluten host during Mass.
