Inspiration of the Week

Plenty of people are drawn to Jesus. Curious about him. Inspired by him. But can they carry the cross? Today, Jesus tells us that we cannot have one without the other – it is Christ and the cross, or nothing at all.

Which will we choose?

“For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”

— MATTHEW 16:25 —

We would like to offer adult groups and are gathering ideas. Do you want to talk about a certain book of the bible? Or about Magnifica Humanitas (Magnificent Humanity), which is Pope Leo's first encyclical, addressing human dignity and the ethical challenges posed by artificial intelligence? Or do you want to form a coffee club to gather after mass and talk about the Gospel and the week ahead? Please reach out and share your ideas. We want to hear from you!

SAINT Gregory the Great

POPE • PASTOR • TEACHER OF THE FAITH

FEAST DAY
SEPTEMBER
3

Saint Gregory the Great was a holy and humble shepherd who led the Church with wisdom, compassion, and love. His life of prayer, teaching, and service continues to inspire us more than 1,400 years later.

A LIFE DEDICATED TO GOD

Born in Rome around the year 540 into a noble family, Gregory chose a different path. He left a life of wealth and public office to follow God more closely.

He turned his family home into a monastery and lived a life of prayer, study, and simplicity.

A HUMBLE SHEPHERD & LOVING SERVANT

In 590, he was elected Pope during a time of war, plague, famine, and great suffering. He cared deeply for the poor, the sick, and those in need.

Gregory saw leadership as service. He called himself "Servant of the Servants" of God," a title used by popes to this day.

FAITH, WORSHIP & MISSION

Saint Gregory is known for developing Gregorian chant and for his great influence on the Church's liturgy and worship.

He sent Saint Augustine of Canterbury and other missionaries to England, helping to bring the Gospel to the Anglo-Saxon people.

A TEACHER FOR ALL TIME

His writings on Scripture, prayer, pastoral care, and Christian life have guided the Church for centuries. Because of his wisdom and lasting contributions, he is honored as one of the Doctors of the Church.

A Lesson for Us Today

Saint Gregory the Great shows us that God can use our talents in amazing ways. He calls us to serve with humility, care for those in need, spread the Gospel, and live our faith every day.

Saint Gregory the Great, pray for us!

Join All Saints Youth Choir!

The parish youth choir invites all children to join our musical family! Singing in the choir is a beautiful way to serve our church, learn inspiring hymns, and make wonderful new friends who share this faith. No prior musical experience is required, and anyone from any faith can join. In addition, choir members learn how the Mass works from the inside out and explore how we choose our music each week to match the scripture!

Instruments

We invite all our young instrumentalists to bring their musical talents and make a joyful noise unto the Lord through song! We would love for our young musicians to bring their talents to the youth choir! If your child already has some solid skills on their instrument, they have a great head start and will fit right in.
