QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING Isaiah 66:10-14c

Isaiah speaks of God's love and care for Jerusalem as a loving mother who feeds and comforts her child.

What are some favorite memories or images you have of your mother?

SECOND READING Galatians 6:14-18

Paul ends his letter to the Galatians emphasizing that believers are part of God's "new creation," no longer defined by circumcision and uncircumcision. How does your faith community encourage or energize you to think differently?

GOSPEL READING Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

The 72 followers of Jesus succeeded in their work to preach the kingdom of God and heal the sick and demon possessed. What does a successful parish look like today?

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

July 6, 2025 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

BOOK OF PRAYER INTENTIONS

Look for this small book located in the Holy Family Shrine on the North side of the worship space near the prayer intention candles. Write in your general prayer requests (no names please) and they will be raised in the prayers of our parish as they are taken to the altar during Mass.

Looking for volunteers for a work crew to replace the wood siding on the side walls of the church shed and then to repaint it.

Targeting a Saturday (or two) in July or August. Please contact the parish office (814)796-3023 or email allsaint@allsaintsrcc.org with your interest and availability. We will call you with more information. Lunch will be provided for volunteers.

The Waterford Food Pantry is still in need of a few people to volunteer once a month to carry boxes of food to client's cars. Those interested need to be able to carry at least 35 pounds. There is one evening and 3 morning slots available. Please call Val Rose if interested at 814-602-9175.

The Waterford Food Pantry could use donations of crackers this month. Any brand is fine.

The Summit Food Pantry could use paper towels. These and any donations can go in the blue barrels near the church entrance. Thank you for your help!
